2. 20.10.2008 Heard Sri Nityanand Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner and Sri D. Mehta, Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The renewal prayer has been made by virtue of the observation of a Bench of this court in the last line of order dated 27.2.2008 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 7295 of 2008. The lower court was last approached for bail on 27.11.2006 and thereafter, there was no renewal prayer before that court. This could be the prayer for renewal the petition.

However, the contention is that the witnesses examined have failed to identify the petitioner, but they have named the petitioner. If one could go through the evidences, one could find that it is early to say that the petitioner is entitled to be released on bail.

The petition is dismissed.
